Spring 2016 Events

>> Using Your Values to Explore Majors and Careers
   Wednesday, Feb. 10, 4 p.m. - 5 p.m.  |  Nebraska Union
   A degree in law can open up a lot of doors for different careers. But how do you decide which direction to take your pre-law studies? Take a self-assessment to help identify what you value most in a career and how values can help you identify potential majors and career options within pre-law.

>> Applying to Law Schools 101
   Tuesday, Feb. 23, 5 p.m. - 6 p.m.  |  Love Library South 221
   Are you planning to apply to Law School in the next couple of years? Attend this workshop to learn about the application process for Law School and how to prepare to submit your best application. We will cover topics like the timeline for applying, researching schools, the components of the application (LSAT, personal statement, etc.), and more. This workshop is ideal for Sophomores and Juniors.

>> LSAT Workshop
   Wednesday, March 2, 5 p.m. - 6 p.m.  |  Love Library South 224
   Pre-Law students of all grade levels are encouraged to attend this presentation on the Law School Admission Test (LSAT). Topics covered will include an overview of the exam and its sections, how to best prepare during your undergraduate education for the exam, practice opportunities, and timing of the test with admissions cycles. Bring your thinking cap and be prepared to do a few questions during the exam for a prize!

>> Declare Your Major Day
   Friday, March 11, 1 p.m. - 4 p.m.  |  Love Library South 127
   Ready to declare a major? Come to the Explore Center to make it official, have a cookie, and get your picture taken in our photo booth to celebrate the experience! *Some majors have requirements that must be met to declare. An advisor will be available to discuss them with you.

>> Law School Essay Workshop
   Thursday, April 14, 4 p.m. - 5 p.m.  |  Love Library South 224
   The law school application essay is your chance to introduce yourself to potential schools. This workshop will discuss what law schools are looking for in this essay, and provide participants writing exercises to begin the process of developing your individual story in a strong and compelling manner. Co-presented with the UNL Writing Center.

>> Law School Dean’s Panel & Law School Browsing Fair
   Wednesday, April 13, 2:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.  |  Kauffman Center Great Hall (Panel is 2:30 p.m. - 3:30 p.m. and fair is 3:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.)
   Hear directly from Law School Deans in our region as they answer questions about the future of law careers and education and share what they are looking for in law school students. Students will have the opportunity to ask questions of the panel and meet with representatives from the law schools in our own mini law school fair. Students are welcome to participate in either the panel, the fair, or both. Participating law schools include: University of South Dakota, Creighton, Nebraska Law, UMKC, University of Iowa, Drake University, and Washburn University.
