Choose Your Own Adventure: Creating a Major Exploration Plan

Thursday, Jan. 26, 4 p.m. – 5 p.m.
Love Library South 221
Do you want to begin exploring majors and careers, but aren’t sure where to start? Come to this workshop, where we will discuss various opportunities to explore majors and careers through resources on campus and in the community. Using that information, you will create a major/career exploration plan that is right for you.

Connecting Majors to Careers

Wednesday, Feb. 1, 4 p.m. - 5 p.m.
Love Library South 221
This workshop focuses on the relationship between majors and careers. You will learn how to discover career options for potential majors, what majors are required for certain careers, and tips for choosing a major that will make you competitive for careers you have in mind.

Develop Your Dream: Creating a Career Action Plan

Thursday, Feb. 2, 5 p.m. - 6 p.m.
Love Library South 221
“Follow your dreams” is one of the most common pieces of advice for college students, but it can be hard to know how to follow them. Work with facilitators to talk about the things that you love, and how they can turn in to what you do as a career. You will walk away with an action plan that will help you take steps to pursue your dream career. Presented in collaboration with Career Services.

How to Choose a Major

Monday, Feb. 6, 4:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.
Love Library South 221
Start narrowing down your list of potential majors at this workshop. Learn about important details to consider when choosing a major and how to take advantage of available UNL resources to explore your options.

Using Your Strengths to Explore Your Future Aspirations

Wednesday, Feb. 8, 4 p.m. - 5 p.m.
CBA 222
Do you like to get things done? Do you have a passion for motivating others? Do you like to be creative? Come learn more about being a woman student in business by attending this one-hour conversation and reception. We will be sharing how to use YOUR unique talents in a future career. Become a #bizleadHER. The world needs more! Co-sponsored with the College of Business Administration.
Values are one's judgment of what is important in life. What role do values play in making major and career decisions? What values are most important to you? Take a self-assessment to help identify what you value most in a career and how values can help you identify potential majors or careers.

Don’t Be Afraid of Your Own Job Shadow
Tuesday, Feb. 21, 3:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.   |   Love Library South 221
Unsure of where to start for exploring majors or careers? Come to this workshop to learn about how job shadowing can help you investigate majors and careers. In this workshop we will discuss the importance of job shadowing, identify ways for you to find job shadowing opportunities, and discuss how to make job shadowing work for you.

Getting to Know Your Interests, Skills and Values
Thursday, March 2, 4 p.m. - 5 p.m.   |   Gaughan Center: Unity Room 212
Self-knowledge is essential for successful academic planning. The more you know about yourself, the better you can select a major that connects to your interests, values and abilities. Join an Explore Center advisor to take the FOCUS 2 assessment and learn how you can use this information to assist you in major exploration.

Values, Majors, and Careers
Wednesday, March 8, 4 p.m. - 5 p.m.   |   Love Library South 221
Values are one's judgment of what is important in life. What role do values play in making major and career decisions? What values are most important to you? Take a self-assessment to help identify what you value most in a career and how values can help you identify potential majors or careers.

Declare Your Major Day
Wednesday, March 15, 1 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.   |   Love Library South 127
Ready to declare a major? Come to the Explore Center to make it official, have a cookie, and get your picture taken in our photo booth to celebrate the experience! *Some majors have requirements that must be met to declare. An advisor will be available to discuss them with you.

Get in Touch

Love Library South 127
402-472-3605
explorecenter@unl.edu

Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. explorecenter.unl.edu

The University of Nebraska does not discriminate based upon any protected status. Please see go.unl.edu/nondiscrimination.