

PRE-LAW WORKSHOPS

FALL 2022

Pre-Law Orientation

Thursday, Sept. 8, 4-5 p.m. | Love Library South 221

This workshop is designed for any student considering applying to law school in the future. Freshmen through seniors will learn what it means to be Pre-Law, how to best plan your undergraduate education for law school success, and what makes a competitive applicant. We will discuss specific timelines for undergraduate preparation for law school admission.

Law School Essay Workshop

Wednesday, Sept. 14, 4-5 p.m. | Love Library South 221

This workshop will cover what law schools are looking for in personal statements and provide you with writing exercises to begin the process of developing your individual story in a strong and compelling manner. Co-presented with the UNL Writing Center.

Get to Know the LSAT

Thursday, Sept. 22, 4-5 p.m. | Love Library South 221

Pre-Law students of all grade levels are encouraged to attend this presentation on the Law School Admission Test (LSAT). Topics covered will include an overview of the exam and its sections, how to best prepare for the exam during your undergraduate education, practice LSAT opportunities, and timing of the test with law school admissions cycles. In addition to attending this workshop, practice what you learn by signing up for a free practice LSAT.

Gaining Experience as a Pre-Law Student

Tuesday, Oct. 11, 4-5 p.m. | Love Library South 221

There are many ways to gain experience as a Pre-Law student, with opportunities on campus, in the local community, and beyond. With so many options, it can be hard to know where to begin getting involved. Attend this workshop to reflect on which skillsets you would like to develop as a Pre-Law student and plan for your involvement as you prepare to apply to law school.
